Informal Letter

Conclusion

- Repeat and summarise the main points of your letter [As you can see, I chose A because of ...]
- Request a reply [I would love to hear from you soon]
- Say goodbye

The Concluding Sentence

Sometimes a concluding sentence reminds the reader of the main point by restating the topic sentence in different words.

- Indeed, a beach is a place to have fun all year!
- In short, you have three delicious choices when you order Thai curry.
- Sometimes a concluding sentence summarizes the main points.
- In short, flight attendants are friendly, self-confident, and strong. To summarize, employees look for dependable, responsible team players.

Clincher sentences

1. General Clincher sentence

-tells generally what the paragraph was about (please remember that these examples are very simplistic for ease of demonstration).

Example: In conclusion, dogs are great pets, and our lives would be less full without them.

Notice that the clincher sentence above starts with a transition, but it does not tell anything about why dogs are great pets, or what about dogs makes them great pets. It is general.

When Douglass got an education, he undermined this control personally. When you read a statement of the conclusion, ask yourself, "So what? Why should anyone care? Ponder that question and answer Basically, I am just saying that education was important to Douglass. For example, it is easy to make your own popsicles. Take some orange juice and try it! Remember that it is important to end your writing by summarizing the main idea for your readers. If you have already written a fabulous introductory paragraph, you can write something similar with different words. Parents, does your student need assistance with writing a final paragraph? When you are writing a good concluding paragraph, you need to think about the main point you want to get across and make sure it is included. In your conclusion, you must briefly mention each animal again. "Sherlock Holmes" State the thesis for the first time in the conclusion Writer thinks it would be more dramatic to keep the reader in suspense and then "wow" them with the main idea, as in a Sherlock Holmes mystery Readers want an analytical discussion of the topic in academic style, with the thesis statement at the front America the Beautiful ADraw out the emotion to make its appeal Out of character with the rest of the paper A Bag Bag A Includes extra information thought of or found, but could not integrate into the main body Creates confusion for the reader Conclusion outline Topic sentence Fresh rewording Supporting sentences Summarize or summarize the main points of the body of the essay Explain how the ideas fit together Concluding sentence Concluding words Connects back to introduction Provides a sense of closure More concluding paragraph features A conclusion is what you will leave with your reader Demonstrates The reader that you have not accomplished what you are not proposing to do Shows how you have not proved your thesis Gives the reader a sense of closure over the Structure A conclusion is the opposite of the introduction Remember that the introduction eats general and ends spec The conclusion eats spec and moves to the general Test Structure Then, if we use forms to demonstrate the content of the test, would be: Introduction Thesis statement Body of the essay Reformulated Thesis Statement Conclusion What to include Your conclusion involves your essay in a tidy package and brings home to your reader Your phrase should summarize what you did not say in your thesis statement This suggests to your reader that you did not accomplish what you did not propose to accomplish Do not simply repeat your thesis statement, As this would be redundant Reflect the thesis statement with a new and profound understanding Your conclusion is not a place to bring new ideas Your supporting phrases should summarize what you have already said in the body of your essay If a brilliant idea tries to sneak into the final pair, You should rip it off and let it have its own pair the body, or leave it out completely Your for each Your final sentence should help the reader to feel a sense of closure. Your final sentence should be your last word on the subject; your clincher AAnticenceAo your ideas Propel your reader to a new view of the subject Finish on a positive note Your final sentence should make your readers happy that they read your article StratA for an effective conclusion You can't have food saying, there are classes at school that I absolutely can't wait to go every day.
